The 2008 Perry Panther Hitting Camp is built to introduce the player to our offensive philosophy through various hitting drills under the experienced eye of our varsity players and coaches. The camp will concentrate on hitting drills that you can replicate throughout the year. We will work through Progression Hitting Drills emphasizing balance and hand/eye coordination. This will allow the athlete to learn new drills, which train muscle memory and proper hitting technique. We will incorporate video technology to correct common flaws and perfect individual technique.

At Perry we incorporate "small ball" into everyday drills and we will continue that tradition with proper bunting techniques for sacrifices, squeezes, as well as bunting for a hit. Our future Panthers will work on the same drills that our varsity players work everyday to build a strong foundation for short-term and long-
